

Fraction Pizzas

To help us learn about equivalent Fractions 3rd class made fraction pizzas!

Each student planned, designed and created their own pizza. We made a key to show what fractions we created for each of our toppings. We had a focus on using as many equivalent fractions as possible.

The children also created questions based on their pizza for other children to answer.

