From the data gathered from this survey the following areas require further information:

1. Parents are required to sign their child's homework diary every day. The diary should only be signed after the parents have checked their child's homework, heard their reading and spellings.
2. Our school has an Anti-Bullying policy which is published on our website.
3. From June 2018 the Board of Management shall issue an annual report in our Newsletter.
4. All parents are encouraged and welcome to offer their views and opinions at any time on school matters. Please feel free to do so.
5. Financial contributions to the school are voluntary.
6. The Parents Association comprises of every parent in our school. The committee usually publish an article of what they are doing in the monthly Newsletter. Any parent who wishes to become more involved in the committee would be very welcome.
